

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR ZEV YAROSLAVSKY

May 27, 2003

On June 16 and 17, a statewide coalition of elected officials, labor and community organizations will be uniting in a fight to protect public services in the face of the State’s budget crisis. Local 660 is holding a “send off” rally to busloads of citizen lobbyists who will converge in Sacramento for a one-mile march on the state capitol to urge a balanced solution to California’s budget crisis to include enough revenues to avoid deep cuts in essential public services. This rally will take place on Monday, June 16 at 6 p.m. at the Los Angeles County Civic Center Mall. Local 660 is expecting 1500-2000 participants to the rally.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board waive the parking fees for 350 vehicles at the Music Center parking lot in the amount of $2,800, for participants in this event on Monday, June 16 at 6 p.m.
